Welcome to the spring edition of Life by Hometown Australia. In this edition we discover an array of innovative homes that have been designed specifically for over 50s ease of living, we gain great insights into why residents enjoy living in a Hometown Australia Community, and we recap on the many fantastic competitions that have taken place over the past months.

In exciting news, Hometown Australia recently announced the acquisition of the Laurieton Community on the mid north coast of New South Wales. The acquisition complements our commitment to Port Macquarie as we expand the current portfolio to 910 home sites over five communities within the region. The well-established community includes 301 sites and offers an array of superb amenities including a gym & wellness centre, indoor and outdoor heated pools, and bowling green. We look forward to continuing to build a sense of community for residents.

Over the past couple of months, residents have been busy taking part in many of the Hometown Australia competitions. The competitions are designed to be inclusive and welcoming for residents to participate in. We have received wonderful feedback and look forward in continuing to deliver competitions to our residents throughout the remainder of the year. In this edition we take a look at the recent competitions and congratulate the winners!

There are two competitions remaining for 2022 with the resident favourite Spring Garden Competition commencing this month. This year we call upon all green thumbs to create something special within their garden or to come together to design a garden within the community. In previous years we have received an overwhelming response with residents' registering their magnificent gardens – making the decision to choose a winner very difficult!

We look forward to sharing the winners of the Spring Garden Competition with you in the next edition of the magazine.

Kind regards,

Enjoy a Relaxed Lifestyle Along the Coast of Coffs Harbour

The Coffs Harbour coast is known for its beautiful weather, tranquil rainforests and stretches of white sandy beaches, making it one of Australia's ideal holiday destinations. So, it is no wonder more over 50s are looking to downsize and enjoy relaxed living along the north coast of NSW.

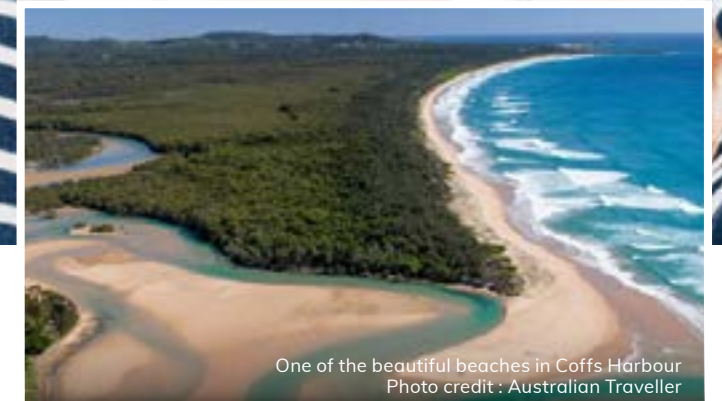

Nestled amongst the beach and the bush you will find The Pines, a community offering an enviable over 50s lifestyle. Located in Woolgoolga, 20 minutes north of Coffs Harbour and set alongside the Hearn Lake, the community offers the best of both worlds with access to secluded beaches and the lively culture that the Coffs Harbour region has to offer. The Pines offers an array of amenities with residents being able to enjoy swimming laps in the pool, organising a game of tennis with neighbours, or taking time out to relax in the spa. In addition to the current amenities, the development is planned to include a new community centre and additional amenities.

The new community centre will include an entertaining area, gym, activities room, and BBQ facilities for residents to enjoy. The community will also be welcoming 47 new homes with designs to be released later in the year.

Residents can start their day by grabbing a coffee at their local spot and enjoying a walk across the shores of one of the nearby beaches. Grab your comfiest walking shoes, pack a picnic, and explore the beauty of the north coast with national parks such as the Sherwood Nature Reserve and Bindarri National Park a short drive away.

Water enthusiasts have endless opportunities to enjoy the region with fishing at Bongil Bongil National Park, your choice of visiting many of the pristine beaches, or taking in the view of the coastline across one of the 75 walking trails within the region.

Within the picturesque community, downsizers have the opportunity to purchase new or pre-loved homes on the Land Lease Living model. This means residents own the dwelling and long-term lease the land on which it stands.

Financial benefits include:

- No stamp duty
- No council rates
- No exit fees or deferred management fees
- Retainment of 100% capital gains.

The Land Lease Living model makes it possible for those looking to downsize to access lifestyle rich areas and join lifestyle communities providing an exceptional over 50s living experience.

The Magic of Grafton

Perfectly located in the heart of the north coast of New South Wales is the charming rural town of Grafton. Rich in history stemming back to 1849, Grafton can be characterised by its wide streets adorned by the famous purple Jacaranda trees, elegant Victorian buildings, lush parks, civic beauty, and prime location on the banks of the Clarence River. It is no surprise why residents at Jacaranda Grove call this beautiful town home.

"My husband and I have lived in Grafton for 57 years, so it made sense to make the move to Jacaranda Grove. We have been here for nearly nine years and haven't regretted it once," said Hazel Partridge, resident at Jacaranda Grove.

Fittingly named, Jacaranda Grove is a well-established community offering those over 50 a relaxed country lifestyle. "We had friends living in the community who would often have us over for dinner and tell us how great life is living at Jacaranda Grove. It took a little while for us to make the move but after our family had grown up, we decided the time was right for us. We wanted to be part of a community and around company of a similar age," said Hazel.

"Jacaranda Grove has a nice sense of community, which is what its all about. That's what we were missing before we made the move and now, we have new friends, we are part of a great community and we have a pretty good social life that we never had before which includes weekly BBQ catch ups with our friends within the community" said Hazel.

Residents can enjoy keeping socially and physically active by swimming laps in the pool or catching up with family and friends in the BBQ area.

In an exciting step forward, construction is now underway on the new community centre at Jacaranda Grove. The clubhouse will feature a country inspired interior where residents can enjoy their morning coffee in one of the alfresco areas with views of the pool, relax in one of the lounge areas with a book from the library, or meet up with neighbours for a sundowner drink at the bar. "We are all very excited about the new community centre. I was part of the social committee at the old centre, so I look forward to helping get the committee going again – that's in the pipeline! It will be great to have a larger library and more space for people to come together and enjoy. It will be great to have a place where residents can enjoy a cup of coffee, read a book, and catch up," said Hazel.

Often referred to as the Jacaranda City, Grafton is home to over 1,400 Jacaranda trees and when in full bloom the streets are alive with the magic of with cascading purple blossoms. The Jacaranda trees are celebrated annually at the renowned Grafton Jacaranda Festival which is a 10-day festival honouring the towns glorious lilac trees with live music, art exhibitions, and markets. "When our children were younger, they would take part in marches in the festival each year. Once the kids left home my husband and I would still enjoy going and having a Jacaranda ice cream which is a vanilla ice cream with a purple hue. The markets are wonderful with homemade pickles, jams, and different things. It's great to go down and support," said Hazel.

If you're looking for a day of exploring there is no better place to start than experiencing the delights of the Clarence Valley and the nearby (approx. 40 minutes) coastal towns of Yamba, Wooli and Iluka. Enjoy a walk across the Grafton Bridge taking in the sights of the Clarence River and Susan Island, spend a day on the water fishing, sailing, or swimming or keep to a land-based activity and explore the Yuraygir National Park or the Bom Bom State Forest bike trail.

"Grafton is a very old city rich in history and is surrounded by beautiful old homes which are being lovingly restored and hundred-year-old Jacaranda trees. It really has everything you need from beautiful drives to the beaches 40 minutes away, great picnic spots and every day needs in the shopping centres. There is always plenty to see and do in Grafton!" concluded Hazel.

Lakeland Welcomes New Clubhouse

Hometown Australia is pleased to announce the approval for the development of the new clubhouse for residents at the Lakeland Community on the Central Coast of New South Wales.

“The design of the clubhouse is special as it includes input we have received from residents since the early conception of the project, right through until now,” said David Lawton, Development Project Manager at Hometown Australia.

The Lakeland Resident Committee engaged with the Hometown Australia Development and Operations teams on behalf of all residents to obtain feedback and input into the design. “Hometown Australia endeavor to develop communities to further enhance the living experience for residents with their input being integral for the overall success of the development,” said Mr Lawton.

Residents will be able to enjoy the clubhouse all year round with the design including a new pool, covered outdoor alfresco deck with poolside views complete with outdoor dining, integrated bar, and

BBQ facilities. The perfect spot to host a get together with family and friends or enjoy a sundowner drink with your neighbours.

Taking a look inside the clubhouse residents will have their choice in areas to relax and socialise. Find a spot in one of the many lounge nooks, enjoy a friendly game of pool, or meet up with friends in the indoor casual dining area. The clubhouse will be complete with a commercial grade kitchen and integrated bar for residents to host social events, and keep active in the new gym. “In addition to the clubhouse, there will also be the development of new BBQ facilities and amenities along the waterfront for residents to enjoy. As the community is set across the Budgewoi Lake, we felt this is the perfect location to be able to provide further amenities for residents to be able to enjoy the natural surrounds,” said Mr Lawton.

Fittingly designed for its location, the clubhouse will be of a modern-coastal style with hints of Hamptons accents. The clubhouse will feature light and bright interiors with timber decking throughout, high ceilings, and open planned social areas.

Welcome to Lakeland

Located on the shores of the beautiful Budgewoi Lake on the Central Coast in New South Wales, Lakeland is a peaceful oasis set across 12 acres of lakefront land. Residents can continue to enjoy the many social activities held in the current clubhouse, relax with a good book from the library, catch up with friends for a BBQ, swim laps in the pool, or jump on the community bus for a group adventure.

An Afternoon of Fashion and Glitz for a Good Cause at Sunrise

Residents at the Sunrise Community in Port Stephens enjoyed an afternoon of fashion and glitz, all for a good cause!

In May, residents Brenda, Madeline and Deb from the Sunrise Social Committee hosted a fashionable afternoon to raise funds and support the Tomaree Cancer Support Group. The Tomaree Cancer Support Group provides support to those undergoing treatment for breast cancer in the Tomaree Peninsula area. Support includes driving patients to important medical appointments, face to face support, physiologist assistance, help with household duties, gardening, and even helping to arrange babysitters.

In 2014, Brenda was diagnosed with breast cancer. "I found tremendous support by the Tomaree Cancer Support Group who arranged for members to take me to medical appointments and sit with me while undergoing chemotherapy. I certainly could not have done without them. That is why I suggested to hold the fashion parade fundraiser for the group as they don't receive government funding and depend on donations," said Brenda event organiser from the Sunrise Social Committee.

Guests enjoyed a glass of champagne on arrival followed by an afternoon tea in the Sunrise community centre. Collaborating with local business, Pizzaz Boutique, residents volunteered to model the best of evening and casual fashion with highlights being the vibrant pops of colour and beautiful transeasonal pieces.

There were many prizes up for grabs that were donated by residents and local businesses which were raffled off to lucky winners throughout the event. The afternoon was a huge success with a total of $3,710 raised and donated to the Tomaree Breast Cancer Support Group.

"Sara Smith, President of the Tomaree Cancer Support Group advised the funds raised from the event will be used for a special project which will be announced shortly. We are looking forward to hearing how the funds raised will help others within the community through their cancer journey," Brenda, Event Organiser from the Sunrise Social Committee

Cancer Care Committee Raises a Whopping Amount to Support Local Cancer Care Treatment Units

It has been a busy end to the fundraising year for the Cancer Care Committee at the Grevillea Waters Community on the north coast of New South Wales. For the second year, the committee raised funds for the Northern NSW Cancer Institute at Grafton and Lismore with funds directed to the Cancer Care Units to assist patients undergoing cancer treatment.

"Last year a group of us were discussing local residents' cancer treatments which then lead to the forming of a committee. After some discussion, we decided to fundraise for cancer and wanted to stay local and help our Grevillea Waters community friends through their treatments," said the Grevillea Waters Cancer Care Committee.

In 2021, the committee successfully raised $4,365 for the Lismore Cancer Care Unit and in 2022 they decided to include the Grafton Hospital Cancer Care Unit as well. "The funds raised will go to the Cancer Care Units at both Lismore and Grafton Hospital who we know use donations for buying things such as food and petrol vouchers, heat packs, and wigs for patients to assist with relieving financial stress so they can continue their treatment. Funds also go towards education for nurses who specialise in the field," said the Cancer Care Committee.

Last month the community came together with over 140 residents showing their support by attending the Morning Tea Celebration Fundraiser for Cancer Care, which is the committee's end of year fundraiser held in the Grevillea Waters community centre. "We received an overwhelming amount of support from local businesses in Yamba who donated gift cards, goods and even cash donations. Residents also got behind the cause donating handmade prizes for the raffle," said the Cancer Care Committee.

"Without the amazing support of the Grevillea Waters Social Committee, we may not have reached the level of success that we have. We are hoping to have bigger and better prizes for 2023 as the Morning Tea Celebration tickets are becoming a 'hot' item on the social calendar in Yamba!" said the Cancer Care Committee.

A massive congratulations to the committee donating a total of $8,400 to the Cancer Care Units at Grafton and Lismore Hospital. "To all the Grevillea Waters residents who donated prizes and to all who attended and supported by purchasing raffle tickets, also to the ladies that helped in the kitchen and selling raffle tickets, the Cancer Care Committee is very thankful and hope to have your continued support in 2023," said the Cancer Care Committee.

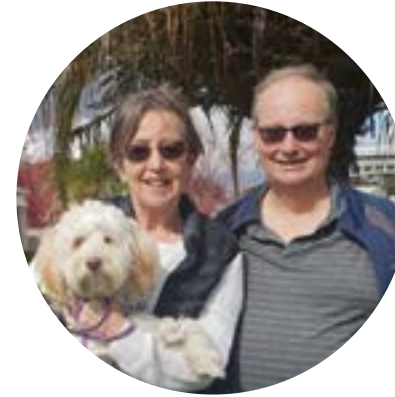

If you think the Cancer Care Committee will be slowing down, you can think again! The committee has just kicked off their fundraising efforts for 2023 with raffles being held on Friday nights within the community with prizes such as meat and seafood vouchers and fresh produce boxes. The committee is also busy planning events to be held throughout the year as they have set the goal to raise $10,000 for the Cancer Care Units in 2023!

"We hope if any of our community friends need to undergo cancer treatment, we have helped to make things just that little bit more bearable," concluded the Cancer Care Committee.

Why Residents Enjoy Living in a Hometown Australia Community

Here at Hometown Australia, we endeavor to create the best in over 50s* living experiences and provide a sense of community within our communities. Don't take our word for it! Read on to discover what residents enjoy most about living in our communities -

Ann and Ron from Boronia Range in New South Wales

We moved into the community three years ago after selling our family home. We were looking to downsize to a more manageable property. We like the security living in the community brings, we enjoy the many amenities and taking part in the social events.

Ian and Coral from Cobb Haven in New South Wales

We have lived in the community for just under two years and enjoy the many great things about Cobb Haven. It is a great way of life where we enjoy the facilities such as a heated indoor swimming pool (that can be used all year round), BBQ areas, tennis court, and community centre. Everyone we meet are all here for the same reason, to enjoy life!

Jenny from Lakeland in New South Wales

I have lived at Lakeland for five years now and I have been very happy from the day I arrived. I have not regretted the decision of moving into an over 50s community. The friendships forged amongst the other residents and the social activities the community offers make this a really great place to call home.

Yvonne from Regal Waters in Queensland

I have lived in the community for over 11 years and I am very happy I made the decision to move. I can join in as many activities as I like as there are many on offer or I can simply sit back and relax. The gardens are beautiful and I love having the freedom to grow my vegetables in my own little private veggie garden. I haven't had to buy a tomato in years!

Marilyn from Edgewater in Queensland

I decided to move to Edgewater four years ago after I lost my husband as I wanted to feel part of a community. I am Vice President of the Social Club and have been for a few years now, this is my second year coordinating the spring fair which is very well known in the area. I join in with happy hour every week, attend all the events in the village and do the "meet and greet" of new people. I really enjoy the camaraderie and the fact that everyone looks after each other.

Bev from Rosetta in South Australia

We have been living at Rosetta for four years now and really love it here. We are very active in community life, busier than ever! We have made some wonderful friends and very safe living here. It is an absolute pleasure to walk around the community, talk to friends and admire the beautiful gardens and walkways that people have made their own.
