

If FBI or Law Enforcement Visits You

* Law enforcement includes FBI, HSI, State Department, or local police

Do not talk to them without consulting a lawyer.

Say, "I wish to remain silent. I will have my lawyer contact you."

Ask for their business card.
Get their name and the agency they work for.

Do not let them inside your house unless they have a warrant.

Say, "I do not give you consent to enter my house."

Do not let them search your electronic devices unless they have a warrant.

Say, "I do not give you consent to search my devices."

Call us: (415) 896-1701

Don't be afraid, but for your safety do not resist if an officer disregards your rights.

