The Tennessee Williams Annual Review was founded in 1998 and is published in partnership with The Historic New Orleans Collection. The first four issues (1998–2001) were printed at Middle Tennessee State University and are archived at our web site: www.tennesseewilliamsstudies.org.

Subscriptions are available for fifteen dollars yearly for individuals and thirty dollars yearly for libraries and institutions, including postage.

Submission Guidelines

All submissions should be 15–25 pages in length and follow the most recent MLA guidelines. Please send submissions, preferably prepared in a recent version of Microsoft Word, on a PC compatible disc, or via email as an attachment. Hard copies may be submitted as well. Discs should be labeled with the following information: name, article title, and format of document (word processor used). If you want to have your disc returned, please provide a mailer with correct postage. All submissions must carry assurance that they have been submitted exclusively to the Tennessee Williams Annual Review. Submissions should be addressed to:
